

CHAPTER V

SUMMARY

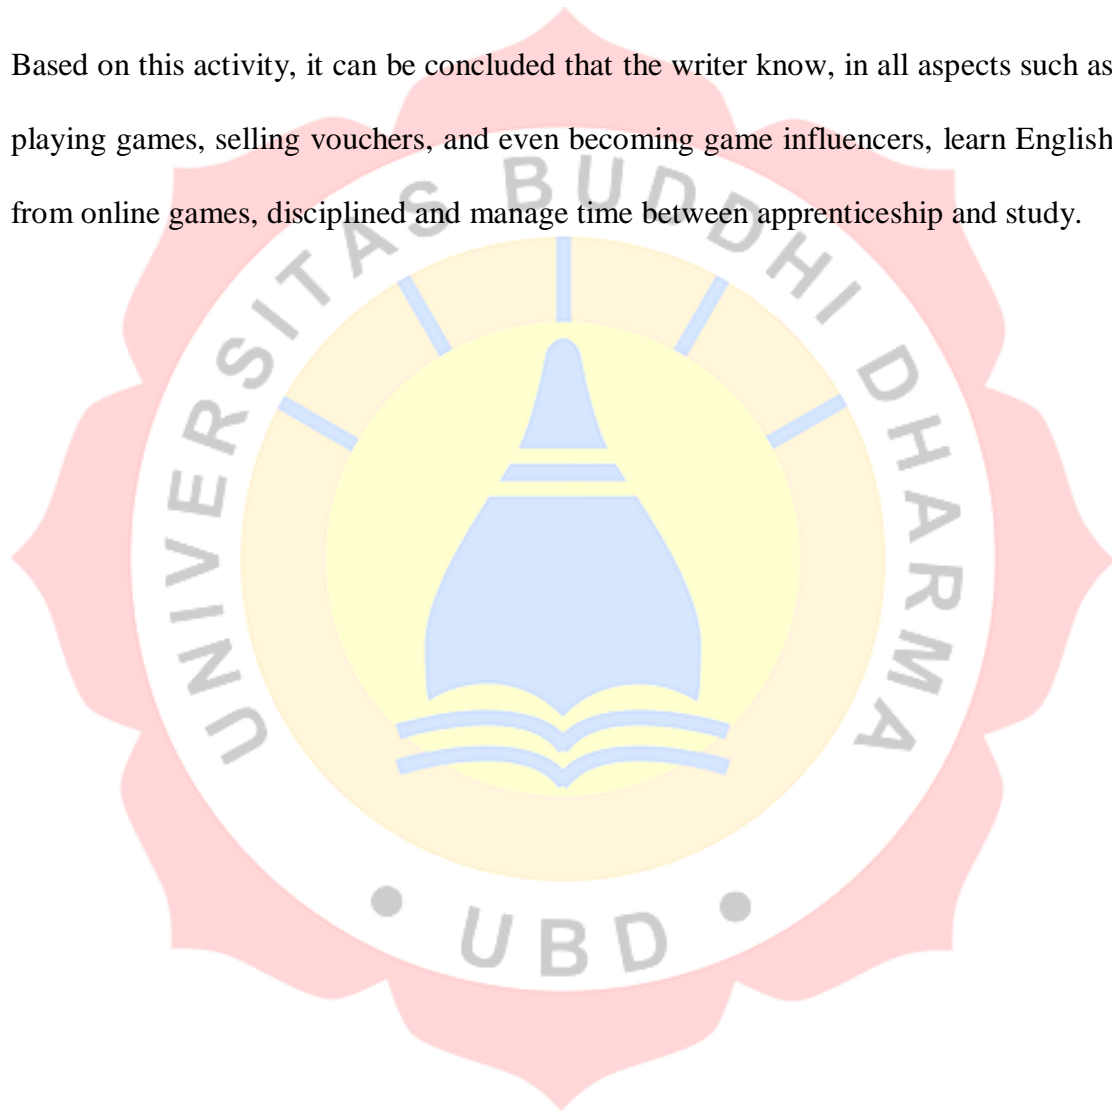

Based on the apprenticeship activities, there were many new things learned by the writer. As an apprentice in the company, the writer learns a lot about how to control emotions, the writer taught to work professionally. The workplace is not easy, we must be responsible for every job that we do to produce results. The workplace is also taught how we can work individually or as a team. For apprentices, it is recommended to always ask for new things to reduce mistakes in work. When we work and handle finances, we must be careful and concentrate, if we are not careful, it can make losses for the company.

Apprenticeships are the best place to train before entering the real workplace. We are also taught to be responsive to new things that must be done to work efficiently. Apart from the knowledge about the workplace, the writer also received knowledge that playing games is not only for entertainment that wastes money and time but can provide income and the writer also increase vocabulary in English, because the games and vouchers used English, this is very helpful to.

Now an Olympics for online gaming and it has entered the SEA Games. Playing games is not only played by boys but also by girls. In addition to playing games, we can also sell game vouchers. Today many people are becoming YouTubers and online game influencers, as well as playing they also sell game vouchers and of course get benefits and it's very easy to work. If they can, why can't we, no effort betrays results. Same as the Lapak Gaming Company, which started as an MSME but with the tenacity of the Owner of this company, now they can hire employees and also provide opportunities for other MSMEs.

Based on this activity, it can be concluded that the writer know, in all aspects such as playing games, selling vouchers, and even becoming game influencers, learn English from online games, disciplined and manage time between apprenticeship and study.
